CURATED AFRICAN PRODUCT COLLECTION

Virunga Origins

Chocolate, coffee & thoughtful treats from the heart of the Congo.

A STORY WORTH SHARING

01 / THE STORY

Good chocolate.
Bigger purpose.

What if something as simple as a chocolate bar could also help build a more hopeful future? That is the idea behind Virunga Origins - a Congolese social enterprise making food closer to where its ingredients grow, while supporting local livelihoods and conservation.

THE MAGIC HAPPENS AT THE SOURCE

In Mutwanga, near Virunga National Park, locally grown cocoa is transformed into chocolate. The journey from farmer to finished bar creates opportunities for people in the region - and adds a remarkable place to every bite.

A LITTLE HISTORY, A LOT OF HEART

1925
A remarkable park

Virunga National Park is established.

2020
Cocoa, transformed

A chocolate factory begins production in the DRC.

TODAY
Made with meaning

Farmers, makers and conservation share the story.

Our selection brings that spirit to retailers, hospitality spaces and gifting moments: distinctive products that give customers something delicious - and something interesting - to talk about.
